

CLIL12 Amazon Rainforest

Watch the movie about the Amazon Rainforest: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JEsV5rqbVNO>

Fill the gaps.

1. One foot is about centimetres and one inch is about centimetres. There are 12 inches in a foot.
2. Habitats are areas that share the same plants, animals and
3. Tropical rainforests are located around the world, close to the
4. The rainforests cover nowadays only of the Earth.
5. Almost of the world`s animal and plant species are present in the rainforest.
6. The largest rainforest is in and is called the rainforest.
7. represent the biggest number of the rainforest animals.
8. The name of the rainforest comes from the
9. Because of rain and the high temperatures the of the rainforest are very tall.
10. The highest level of the rainforest is called level.
11. The oldest trees of the forest are typical for the emergent level. They can grow up to
12. Parrots use their strong to find food.
13. Spider monkeys use their arms, legs and to grip the branches.
14. Most animals of the rainforest live in the, which is known as “umbrella of the rainforest”.
15. Hummingbirds feed on of flowers.
16. Toucans that live in the canopy can eat, fruit and nuts.
17. The biggest tarantulas are comparable in size to the
18. can move each eye separately to be on alert.
19. They are also known as masters of
20. Camouflage helps animals to hide from predators and to

to emerge = to appear or come out from somewhere to be on alert = to be ready for possible danger