

CLIL4

Read the given point to the group and guess.

Quiz: Geography, History, Architecture and more (...)

1. Slurping your noodles, bowing when greeting, knowing the importance of business cards or taking off shoes when entering someone`s house are crucial elements of (...)
2. He was a brilliant artist and known as a Renaissance genius who created “David” and “Pieta” sculptures as well as paintings in the Sistine Chapel in Vatican City.
3. The Eiffel Tower is 325 metres tall, including the antenna at the top.
4. The seven wonders of the Ancient World include: great pyramids of Giza, Temple of Artemis at Ephesus, Statue of Zeus at Olympia, Hanging Gardens of Babylon, Colossus of Rhodes, Mausoleum at Halicarnassus and (...).
5. There is a festival called La Tomatina in which participants are engaged in tomato fight. This festival takes part each year in (...).
6. It is a marble mausoleum in the city of Agra and it houses the tombs of the emperor Shah Jahan and his wife Mumtaz.
7. It is well known Sicilian dessert – Italian pastries, tube-shaped shells, filled with a sweet, creamy filling containing ricotta.
8. It is worn by women in some Islamic countries to cover the body and face.
9. Masterpieces of Old Masters, wooden shoes, canals, cheese markets, windmills and millions of bicycles. Welcome in (...).
10. Mecca is a birthplace of Muhammad and a place of pilgrimages for Muslims. The city is located in (...).
11. Where can you see the Venus de Milo, the Winged Victory of Samothrace, Hammurabi`s Code and many interesting Egyptian antiquities?
12. It`s a stone and it was discovered in 1799. It became a key to deciphering of Egyptian hieroglyphs.
13. Which city in the world has next to Warsaw the largest Polish population?
14. This is the only city in the world located on two continents.
15. It`s a Mexican food – a handmade tortilla stuffed with grilled beef, covered with salsa, onions and other ingredients.
16. Africa, the second most populous continent, has very good relations with its top trade partner (...).

17. It's an African island. It's located in the Indian Ocean and it's the fourth largest island in the world after Greenland, New Guinea and Borneo.
18. There are Alps too. People usually live on the coast. The animals here are the most unique in the world and the rock of Uluru is known here to everyone. What country are we talking about?
19. The area is known as "the roof of the world" and is mainly inhabited by Buddhists. People living here have their spiritual leader – Dalai Lama.
20. Howard Carter was a British archeologist and he became world-famous after discovering the tomb of the 18th dynasty pharaoh. What's the name of this pharaoh?
21. This is a type of tower built as a part of mosques.
22. There is a great number of words in English which come from different languages. What's the origin of these words: amateur, dress, fashion, mustard, pearl or sausage?
23. This is the traditional war dance of the Maori people in New Zealand.
24. These women entertain people through performing the old traditions of Japanese art, dance and singing. Their outlook is characterized by clothes – kimono and makeup – powder used for skin whitening.
25. It could hold about 60.000-80.000 spectators; it was used for executions, re-enactment of famous battles, animal hunts, public spectacles and of course for gladiatorial contests.
26. He is an author of: "The Princess and the Pea", "The Ugly Duckling", "The Snow Queen", "The Red Shoes" or "The Little Match Girl". His name is (...).
27. What's the another name for an area located between the Mediterranean Sea and the Jordan river? Today, this territory includes the modern State of Israel, the Palestinian territories, western Jordan and parts of Lebanon and Syria.
28. These islands are known for their endemic species, were visited by Charles Darwin and therefore they contributed to inception of his theory of evolution.
29. This is a landform surrounded by water on the majority of its border. The largest one is the Arabian (...).
30. It was a central square in ancient Greek cities used for artistic, political and spiritual life in the city. It also served as marketplace with stalls and shops.