

Fill the gaps.

1. Slurping your noodles, bowing when greeting, knowing the importance of business ..... or taking ..... shoes when entering someone`s house are crucial elements of (...)
2. He was a brilliant artist and known as a Renaissance genius ..... created “David” and “Pieta” sculptures as well as paintings in the Sistine ..... in Vatican City.
3. The Eiffel Tower is 325 metres ..... , including the antenna at the .....
4. The seven wonders of the Ancient World include: great ..... of Giza, ..... of Artemis at Ephesus, ..... of Zeus at Olympia, Hanging ..... of Babylon, ..... of Rhodes, ..... at Halicarnassus and (...).
5. There is a festival called La Tomatina in which participants are engaged in tomato ..... . This festival takes part each year in (...).
6. It is a marble mausoleum in the city of Agra and it houses the tombs of the ..... Shah Jahan and his wife Mumtaz.
7. It is well ..... Sicilian dessert – Italian pastries, tube-shaped shells, filled with a sweet, creamy filling containing ricotta.
8. It is worn by women in some Islamic countries to ..... the body and face.
9. Masterpieces of Old Masters, ..... shoes, canals, cheese markets, windmills and millions of bicycles. Welcome in (...).
10. Mecca is a birthplace of Muhammad and a place of ..... for Muslims. The city is located in (...).
11. Where can you see the Venus de Milo, the Winged Victory of Samothrace, Hammurabi`s ..... and many interesting Egyptian antiquities?
12. It`s a stone and it was discovered in 1799. It became a key to deciphering of ..... hieroglyphs.
13. Which ..... in the world has next to Warsaw the largest Polish population?
14. This is the only city in the world ..... on two continents.
15. It`s a Mexican food – a handmade tortilla stuffed with grilled beef, covered with salsa, onions and other .....
16. Africa, the second most populous ..... , has very good relations with its top trade partner (...).

17. It's an African island. It's located in the Indian Ocean and it's the fourth largest ..... in the world after Greenland, New Guinea and Borneo.
18. There are Alps too. People usually live on the coast. The animals here are the most unique in the world and the ..... of Uluru is known here to everyone. What country are we talking about?
19. The area is known as "the roof of the world" and is mainly ..... by Buddhists. People living here have their spiritual leader – Dalai Lama.
20. Howard Carter was a British archeologist and he became world-famous after discovering the ..... of the 18th dynasty pharaoh. What's the name of this pharaoh?
21. This is a type of tower built ..... a part of mosques.
22. There is a great number of words in English which ..... from different languages. What's the ..... of these words: amateur, dress, fashion, mustard, pearl or sausage?
23. This is the traditional ..... dance of the Maori people in New Zealand.
24. These women entertain people through performing the old traditions of Japanese art, dance and singing. Their ..... is characterized by clothes – kimono and makeup – powder used for skin whitening.
25. It could hold about 60.000-80.000 spectators; it was ..... for executions, re-enactment of famous battles, ..... hunts, public spectacles and of course for gladiatorial contests.
26. He is an author of: "The Princess and the .....", "The Ugly Duckling", "The Snow .....", "The Red Shoes" or "The Little ..... Girl". His name is (...).
27. What's the another name for an area located between the Mediterranean ..... and the Jordan river? Today, this territory includes the modern ..... of Israel, the Palestinian territories, western Jordan and parts of Lebanon and Syria.
28. These islands are known ..... their endemic species, were visited by Charles Darwin and therefore they contributed to inception of his theory of .....
29. This is a landform ..... by water on the majority of its border. The largest one is the Arabian (...).
30. It was a central ..... in ancient Greek cities used for artistic, political and spiritual life in the city. It also served as marketplace with stalls and shops.