

CLIL6

Read the given point to the group and guess.

Quiz: Famous Europeans

1. He was a German inventor and printer. He invented the movable-type printing press. [.....]

2. His theory was that all living species have descended from common ancestors. He is known for his theory of evolution. [.....]

3. He was an Italian explorer. Sponsored by King Ferdinand of Spain he discovered the “New World”. In 1492 he made his first trip across the Atlantic Ocean. [.....]

4. He was born in 1564 in Stratford-upon-Avon in England. He was an English poet, actor and great dramatist. His tragedies: Hamlet, Othello or Macbeth are well known in the whole world. [.....]

5. He was the Spanish painter and sculptor. He is known for co-founding the Cubist movement. It is characterized by the use of geometric planes and shapes. [.....]

6. Poland regained its independence on 11th November 1918 after 123 years of partitioning. He was the First Marshal of Poland and also known as a father of the Second Polish Republic reestablished in 1918. [.....]

7. He was born in Pella, the ancient capital of Macedonia. He is known as the conqueror of the Persian Empire. He led his army across three continents founding over 70 cities from Greece to the Indian Punjab. [.....]

8. He was a monk and a German professor of theology. His translation of the Bible into German made it more accessible to the average people. [.....]

9. He was the fifth Roman emperor, the last of the Julio-Claudian dynasty. He was infamous for his extravagances, persecutions of Christians and for his burning of Rome. [.....]

10. The famous king of England. The king with six wives. He had two of them executed and divorced two others. [.....]

11. He is known in history as the father of fascism and as an Italian dictator. [.....]

12. He was a military leader and in 1804 he became an emperor of France. He took part in many battles such as the Battle of Trafalgar or the Battle of Waterloo. [.....]

13. He was a teacher and a philosopher in ancient Greece. His most famous saying is: “I only know that I know nothing”. [.....]

14. He had many discoveries. In 1921, he won the Nobel Prize for physics. His best known work is the theory of relativity. His work also influenced the development of atomic energy. [.....]

15. He was viewed as a supporter of socialism and the working class. He was one of the revolutionary thinkers of the 20th century. After death his body was embalmed and placed in mausoleum in Moscow. [.....]

16. As the sovereign of the Vatican City State he tried to improve the Catholic Church`s relations with Islam and Judaism. He also tried to end the Communist rule in Poland. He was the first non-Italian pope as well as the first from a Slavic country. [.....]

17. He was a Spanish architect. His main work – the church of the Sagrada Familia – is located in Barcelona. [.....]

18. He was interesting in mountaineering. In 1953 he and Nepalese Sherpa Tenzing Norgay reached the summit of Mount Everest. They were the first people in the world to reach the summit of the world`s highest mountain. [.....]

19. His areas of interest included painting, sculpture, drawing, anatomy, architecture and many more. People around the world know his works such as “The Last Supper”, “The Vitruvian Man” or “The Mona Lisa”. [.....]

20. He was one of the founders of the European Union. On 9th May 1950 he made his declaration which aim was to create integration and democratic principles in Europe. [.....]