CLIL9 The Ancient Greece

drama, battle, mathematicians, school, father, games, poet, philosophers, alphabet, temples, war

Homer was the most famous (.....) in Ancient Greece. One of his famous poems is called the Iliad and it is about the Trojan (.....).

The Olympic (.....) is no longer a religious festival, it is now held as an important international sporting event.

Greeks loved all kinds of art. They used marble and bronze to make realistic sculpture. They built (.....) with large stone pillars.

The ancient Greeks invented an (.....) of 24 letters.

Ancient Greek (.....) was written as a god-worshipping activity and as entertainment for people in open-air theatres.

Ancient Greek (.....) and scientists, such as Pythagoras, Archimedes and Euclid, discovered principles and theories that we still use today.

Hippocrates, also known as the (.....) of Medicine.

Famous (.....) in ancient Greece such as Socrates, Plato and Aristotle laid the foundations of Western philosophy.

Children in Athens were sent to (.....) to be educated but children in Sparta were trained to fight in (.....) at an early age.

Homer was the greatest poet in	Plato was a philosopher. He
$A_{}t$ Greece. He was blind but he	opened a school in As. He wrote masterpieces of literature such	taught students to think as the famous Greek poems "The	independently through
$O_{____}y$ " and "The $I_{__}d$ ".	discussion.
Socrates was a philosopher.	Herodotus was a historian. He was
He was the \mathbf{t}_{-} r of Plato. He	called the "Father of H y". He emphasized ethics and	recorded the Persian Wars and is an encouraged people to pursue	important source in studying the history knowledge.	of Ancient Greece.
Alexander the Great was a	Ancient Greeks were artistic. They made beautiful stone ruler / emperor. He set up a	cs for their buildings. Many of these columns large empire by conquering	were in Dc , Ionic and Corinthian styles. Have you Persia, \mathbf{E}_{-} t and north \mathbf{I}_{-} a	seen buildings using these columns?
between 334 and 323BC.	